OK, so I sent out the note without changing the date.

Lets try this again, this time without the rain and little bit warmer.

Lets try something new! Looks like they are really trying get this new location going.

On Sunday November 15th lets meet up at a new Cars and Coffee at Tustin Legacy. Ray is the host. Meet there at 7:30 am. The Lost Bean Coffee and Tea stall will be open in the Mess Hall and so will the bathrooms. Gathering lasts until 9:00. Maybe after that we will get a real breakfast.

Looks like this weeks mark will be Porsche.

The Legacy complex is near the intersection of Red Hill and Barranca on the North East corner.

Address:1705 Flight Way, Tustin, CA 92782

Lets give it a shot.
